

GERMAN I

GER101A/101B — 1.0 Credit

A multimedia, game-based approach makes this introductory German course different from traditional approaches to language learning. Advanced teaching techniques are used to turn compelling adventures and activities into rigorous lessons in grammar and vocabulary. This course provides a solid foundation for reading, speaking, writing, and understanding German and cultivates a passion for the language through exposure to culture and dynamic experiences of real people and real places. This course also features cutting-edge adaptive learning technology that lets students select the learning style that's right for them.

Who Should Take This Course?

Students with little or no German language experience.

What Will I Learn?

Phrases: Greetings, introductions, relationships, cause and effect, how to express likes and dislikes, and how to ask questions.

Vocabulary: Numbers 1-1000, adjectives, animals, body parts, medical words, family words, colors, food, and classroom objects.

Grammar: Noun/adjective agreement with gender, use of modifiers, prepositions, possession, masculine and feminine nouns with articles, plural article agreement, and passive voice.

Culture: Students will gain an understanding of German-speaking cultures including economy, traditions, history and political structure.